

University of Delaware
Discrete Mathematics Seminar

Some Simple Modules for Classical Groups

Ogul Arslan

Coastal Carolina University

Friday, October 23, 2009

Ewing Hall 336 4-5pm

Abstract

We determine the characters of the simple composition factors and the submodule lattices of certain Weyl modules for classical groups. We use Jantzen sum formula to determine the dimensions of simple submodules of these groups. These simple modules appear in the study of incidence matrices in finite geometry. Hence, some p-rank problems can be solved.