

Review Exercises for the Third Exam
Exam on May 12th, 2004

The exercises below are a guide for you to use while studying. You should not take this to be a comprehensive picture of the exam, but rather as a starting point for your studies. You should review your homework, your project work, your team exercises, and should read your text. This exam will cover Sections 16.1-16.4, 16.6, 16.7 and 17.1-17.3. To review for Chapter 16, you should look at the Review Exercises for Chapter 16, in particular problems 3-8,9,13,14,15-28,29-34. For Chapter 17, again try the Review Exercises, in particular problems 1-14.
