-First and most important

Ask!

... my job is to help you understand the concepts covered during the lecture and it will certainly be easier for all of us if you let me know right away that you are having trouble with something. The only silly question is the one that was never asked so, as long as your questions are related with the course, you are very welcome and expected to ask them, be it during the class or during the office hours.

-Tentative Discussion Quiz Schedule

Quiz 1 February 16, 2016. (February 18 for section 61)
Quiz 2 March 1, 2016. (March 3 for section 61)
Quiz 3 March 15, 2016. (March 17 for section 61)
Quiz 4 April 5 2016. (April 7 for section 61)
Quiz 5 April 26, 2016. (April 28 for section 61)
Quiz 6 May 10, 2016. (May 12 for section 61)

-Special accommodations.
If you need any sort of special accommodation,
Disability Support Services http://www.udel.edu/DSS/

-Work hard.
There is only one way for learning (and mastering) math and that is by working hard. I expect from you to work through the homework and assignments before the session, in that way you will have concrete questions to ask me, and if you are stuck with any problem we can work it out. I’m NOT solving the homework for you, but I will definitively help you with any difficult step if you ask me on time.

-Academic dishonesty and conduct. Regarding academic dishonesty UD has a very strict and clear policy which you can check in detail by visiting www.udel.edu/studentconduct. No cheating, plagiarism or any other form of academic dishonesty will be tolerated. If I ever suspect that a student is being academically dishonest I will get the Office of Student Conduct involved.

- Behavior & attendance.
  This is also commonsense, but I’ll state it anyway. No disruptive behavior in the classroom please, cellphones, laptops, Ipods, Ipads, PSP’s and the likes MUST REMAIN OFF during the class. You are expected to attend all the sessions unless some special and justifiable circumstance prevents you from doing so (more on this subject can be found in the instructor's syllabus), in which case you should inform me in advance or as soon as possible. Attendance will be take continuously and there are no make-ups for missed class activities. Please NO MORE THAN 5 MINUTES LATE.

- E-mail & Office hours.
  The best way to contact me is through my e-mail, just make sure that your subject line includes the course and section you’re in. I will make my best effort to answer your e-mails within 24 hours. If you find yourself stuck with some concept, are having a hard time with your assignments or need a second explanation on a topic, you are welcome to come and ask during my office hours.
